

PRS and PPL for Music

Community events and community groups are covered by the above licences held by the hall. WI and comparable groups are also covered.

The licence does not cover groups who are using music and run for profit. These groups require their own licence.

The licence also does not cover copyrighted theatrical performances. The songwriter, composer for publisher must be contacted on these occasions, an individual copyright licence will normally be required.

Insurance

Individual groups are responsible for checking they have the necessary insurance cover for activities.
